The best selling Irish Whiskey in the World selling more than 20 million bottles annually. Light sherry notes with a very pleasant dry finish. The old Jameson distillery is based in Midleton Co. Cork. Now a visitors centre, it dates back to the early 17th. century. Production in the new Midleton Distillery began in 1975.
- Jameson 12 Year Old €7.10
Often considered one of the best blends in the world and arguably the best value on our list. Warm, spicy nutty flavour with sherry richness and long finish.
- Jameson 18 Year Old €17.10
Limited edition. each bottle individually numbered. Won gold at the 2008 International Spirits Challenge Awards. Long lingering finish with wood, spicy, toffee and vanilla notes.
- Jameson Gold €8.10
Matured in new oak barrels which gives a unique honey toasted sweetness.
- Redbreast 12 Year Old €7.10
Pure pot still whiskey is unique to Ireland. Award winning whiskey and full of character. Touch of oiliness and fruitcake on the taste.
- Redbreast 15 Year Old €12.00
The 15 year old expression of Redbreast was initially a one-off release that was eventually made a permanent part of the range due to it's huge popularity. This is one of the richest, and heaviest Irish pot still whiskeys. The bottling is vatted from whiskeys aged between 15 and 19 years old and the cask selection is from 1st fill bourbon and sherry barrels.
- Bushmills €4.70
Dating back to 1608, the Bushmills distillery in Co.Antrim is legendary, in fact the oldest licenced distillery in the world. The original Bushmills ~ is a delicate blend with a fragrant maltiness.
- Bushmills Black Bush €5.10
Aged for several years in sherry casks. ~ full bodied aroma and a slightly sweet taste.

Green Spot €6.80

Green Spot is a 100% pure pot still whiskey that can trace its roots to the early 1900s, when Jamesons sold whiskey to wine merchants Mitchell & Son.

Yellow Spot €8.80

Yellow Spot was perhaps one of the most eagerly awaited new releases from Irish Distillers in recent years. This is the recreation of an old brand that once was partnered by Green Spot and Blue Spot whiskeys. The pot still content in Yellow Spot is medium weight, similar to Green Spot but aged for at least 12 years.

Writers Tears €5.00

This is a fine whiskey, which strictly speaking is a blend but only contains pot still whiskey and malt whiskey. Unlike other blends it does not contain and grain whiskey.

Jameson Caskmates €6.80

Two heads are said to be better than one, and this whiskey adds serious weight to that argument. Emerging from a conversation between our head distiller and the head brewer of Cork's Franciscan Well Brewery, Jameson Caskmates has been finished in stout-seasoned whiskey casks. While our triple-distilled smoothness is very much intact, notes of cocoa, coffee and butterscotch confirm the stout influence.

Jameson Black Barrel €8.40

Twice charred for a good measure. Black Barrel is a triple distilled blend of rich pot still and grain whiskey that is matured in a mixture of sherry casks and bourbon barrels. However, unlike the rest of our range, the bourbon barrels undergo an additional charring. It's a painstaking process, but we hope you'll agree that it's worth the extra effort. Black Barrel delivers the signature smoothness of Jameson Original, with enhanced spice, nutty notes, vanilla sweetness and sherry fruit.

Our Famous Irish Coffee. Made with Powers gold label Irish whiskey, brown sugar and freshly whipped cream, available all day. The original Irish coffee was 'created' by Joseph Sheridan, in Shannon International airport in the 1940's. Sheridan added Irish whiskey to coffee to warm some passengers who had a flight delay. Later, a travel writer named Stanton Delaplaine brought Irish coffee to the states after tasting it at Shannon airport. It was in the U.S. in the 1950s where the method of floating cream on top was developed
